

BECOMING A SPIRITUAL SCIENTIST: STUDY COURSE FOR COCREATORS

Course Description

Becoming A Spiritual Scientist: Study Course For Cocreators is a 4-month study course designed to:

- * Deepen your awareness of yourself as Soul
- * Strengthen the inner connection to God for growth, guidance, expansion and revelation
- * Practice self-mastery skills necessary to align with the spiritual energies
- * Claim your birthright as a cocreator with God and live your personal heaven on earth

You are a powerful creator. You have created your life, up until now, based on certain beliefs, conditioning, thoughts, feelings and information. Much of that 'material' was played out on the human nature playing field that had little or no knowledge of you as a divine being.

Shifting from creator to cocreator with God establishes your divinity as a major player, not a back seat driver. The playing field shifts. As you set a clear intention to cocreate, the ego/personality needs and desires align with the highest good. You embrace the unknown and the replace control with growth, expansion and revelation. Accepting and cooperating with 'what is' takes inner strength, patience and willingness to allow the divine hands to mold and shape you into what is not yet seen.

The course takes place over four weekends (Friday evening and all day Saturday) spread over four months. There are also nine small group meetings that take place between the four weekends for support and next steps.

The course work is divided into four major classes which run throughout the four months concomitantly. They are:

Healing the Past: Turning trash into treasure and reclaiming all parts of ourself.

Healing the past is one step - redeeming all lost and discarded parts of ourselves to their original innocence and blessing it all is necessary to regenerate the hidden cells of negativity. This process releases pain/fear from our body and auric field and replaces it with light.

Self-Mastery: Practicing the tools for living on the divine playing field.

Self-mastery skills of observation, acceptance, compassion and self-forgiveness invite grace to be a daily experience. The ego begins to take direction from our divinity and "my will becomes they will." The following chart illustrates the shifts necessary to give up the games we play.

Course Description

Old

- ✗ Self-doubt about health, wealth or self-mastery
- ✗ Negativity and anxiety
- ✗ Inner cravings or addictions that destroy inspiration or the ability to see possibilities
- ✗ Fears about problems: business, career, depression
- ✗ A sense of limitation about growth or financial freedom or abundance
- ✗ Feeling uninspired about life in general or getting un-stuck
- ✗ Feeling unfulfilled
- ✗ Destructive game playing

New

- ✓ Glimpsing the greater purpose of your life; Knowing the truth and its possibilities.
- ✓ Connecting to your loving divine self; regenerating negativity into loving and light
- ✓ Holding the keys to your destiny; finding what is extraordinary about YOU!
- ✓ Making personal choices easily and having the courage to implement them successfully
- ✓ An abundance of treasure; linking your thoughts of health, wealth, success and harmony to actually HAVING them
- ✓ Making personal choices that will enrich and satisfy you
- ✓ Using spiritual/mental techniques to produce lasting change
- ✓ A new game plan with a Divine Coach who can see your Heaven on Earth

Heavening Your Life: Designing and cocreating your personal blueprint of heaven on earth.

Cocreating embraces growth, expansion and revelation. Designing our heaven requires greater levels of attunement with divine guidance. Our heaven expands to include not only our family, but community and the world at large.

Living as Soul: Deepening your connection with spirit and expanding into the great revelation of the truth of who we are.

Living in the ongoing revelation of our Soul's growth requires greater and greater levels of cooperation. Each Soul's journey is unique. Support is necessary to have the courage to live in this greater reality.

Each class is presented in the weekend format and continued between the weekends with follow-up weekly support group meetings.

BECOMING A SPIRITUAL SCIENTIST: STUDY COURSE FOR COCREATORS

Course Description

Hours of Weekend Classes

Friday Evenings: 7pm - 10pm (beginning times are exact, ending times are approximate)

Saturdays: 9am - 12pm; Lunch: 12pm - 1:30pm; 1:30pm - 6:30pm.

(Beginning times are exact; ending times are approximate)

Support Group Meetings

Three support group meetings scheduled between the weekend classes. Approximately 1½ hours in length. These can take place in person or over the phone. The group can decide the timing and location of the meetings once the course begins.

Class Size

Maximum class size is unlimited. Minimum is 12 participants. That creates three small groups of four each.

Materials and Bibliography

Each participant will receive a notebook which will include all the necessary class materials, handouts and exercises. The book, You Can Make It Heaven: How to Enrich Your Life with Abundance and Loving will be the text for the class. Other relevant books/publications will be introduced to support the direction of the course.

Aura Balancings

It is recommended but not required that participants have at least one aura balancing during the months of the course. Aura balancings release blocks in the auric (energy) field around the body that can unconsciously limit our awareness of our divinity and ourselves as Soul. The aura also contains the unseen blueprint for each Soul's unfoldment. The recommendation is two aura balancings during the length of the course.

Tithing and Seeding

These two spiritual guidelines presented by Melchizedek, a Priest of God, will be used as cornerstones for manifestation. Tithing, giving back a portion of our increase (usually 10%) to our spiritual source – and seeding, giving a certain dollar amount to our spiritual source as a 'seed' for what we would like to manifest in the future will be a voluntary part of the course. The group could decide to give their church/spiritual community with the tithing and seeding – thus sharing the abundance for all.

Invitation to Participate

This course is designed for the sincere student of Spirit. The time commitment is substantial and requires the participant to make this class a priority. Therefore, a careful consideration to the timing of enrolling in this class, taking into consideration what else might be going on in one's life, is advisable.
