

Spiritual Science I: Becoming a Spiritual Scientist[©]

A Course for CoCreators

MAKE IT HEAVEN, LLC

Winter 2010/11

A spiritual scientist uses neutral discernment combined with heart 'knowing' to allow truth to emerge as an ongoing revelation.

Why Now?

Our human experience is shifting. Multidimensionally, we are waking up. But dawning happens gradually. Different aspects of truth are illumined as the heart and mind move beyond the familiar way of perceiving. Hearing with different ears and seeing with clarity requires inner discernment. Becoming a masterful navigator of the inner worlds of self requires you to shift beyond the known conditioned limits and TRUST...the truth and eternal essence of your Soul.

If you wish to lead the formation of the new paradigms in business, education and social change and not continue to follow old dead-end models helplessly, attention must begin inside to access true empowerment, clear, focused attention and soulful intention. If your heart's desire is more personal – an immediate and ongoing revelation as Soul - you can claim, experience and exercise the spiritual mantle that is your divine birthright – a cocreative partner with the divine holiness of the universe.

Becoming a Spiritual Scientist gives you the spiritual tools applicable in every day life to move from conditioned reality into the revelation of your Divinity. Then you can cocreate your personal heaven on earth and help birth into form the new earth of abundance, peace and prosperity for all.

Becoming a Spiritual Scientist:™ A Course for CoCreators is designed to:

- Shift you from story-based to intentional reality
- Deepen your awareness of your divine partnership with God
- Practice self-mastery skills necessary to align with the spiritual energies
- Claim your birthright as a cocreator with God

Spiritual Science I: Becoming a Spiritual Scientist©

Why This Course?

“BECOMING A SPIRITUAL SCIENTIST©: A COURSE FOR COCREATORS IS FOR THIS TIME FOR IT PREPARES US TO IMPLEMENT THE CHANGE WE KNOW TO BE TRUE.”

Dawning happens gradually. Different aspects of truth are illumined as the heart and mind move beyond the familiar way of perceiving and expanding beyond the status quo. We can sense something new before we can articulate it; contemplate it before we own it; have awareness before we become it. The form is usually the slowest to catch up with what we have already seen and perceived. To hold steady during the transition from essence to form requires steadfastness, endurance and courage. And new self-mastery tools.

If we are to lead the formation of new business, social and spiritual model impeccably, and not continue to follow old dead-end paradigms helplessly, attention must begin inside – to access true empowerment, clear and focused attention and soulful intention. It is not enough to change horses in mid stream. The water is toxic. It is fear-based creating separation, alienation, power struggles, lack, and hierarchical belief systems. We must claim and exercise the spiritual mantel that is our divine birthright – a cocreative partnership with the divine forces of the universe. Then the flow of life creates abundance sustaining us all to do well, live well and love well.

What Makes this Course Unique?

“I WANTED REAL TOOLS TO USE IN MY REAL WORLD AND I GOT THEM.”
GARY—
ARCHITECT

We are powerful CoCreators. Learning how to cocreate responsibly and in alignment with our Soul, rather than our ego, takes patience, practice, higher levels of cooperation and grace. A way to shift into the divine cocreation playing field is to become a spiritual scientist.

The New Age Spiritual Directory defines spiritual science as: The evolution of high consciousness as it relates to the human being, to the Universe, and all creation, as taught by the ageless wisdom, esoteric studies, and theosophy.

Becoming a Spiritual Scientist defines a spiritual scientist as one who observed through the eyes of the soul how to work masterfully with the human reactive nature, apply the learning to their life and cocreate heaven on earth.

In other words, the human nature has a divine partner. Asking our Divinity to participate in a greater way accesses the part that ‘knows’ what will work and also accesses the power to live life differently.

NOTE: SS I—Becoming a Spiritual Scientist is the first course in the series. SS II—Mastering the Shift, presents more tools for radical self-responsibility, reconciliation through Living Love and living as a multidimensional being.

Course Offers Four Classes

- Getting Present: Letting go of Story
Healing the past is one step – redeeming all lost and discarded parts of ourselves to their original innocence and blessing it all is necessary to regenerate the hidden cells of negativity.
- Self-Mastery Tools for Cocreators
Self-mastery skills of observation, acceptance, compassion and self-forgiveness invite grace to be a daily experience. The ego begins to take direction from our divinity and “my will becomes thy will.”
- Visioning and Intention: CoCreating your personal heaven
Cocreating embraces growth, expansion and revelation. Designing our heaven requires greater levels of attunement with divine guidance.
- Living as Soul
Living in the ongoing revelation of your Soul begins with greater levels of cooperation. Each Soul’s journey is unique. Support is necessary to have the courage to live in this greater reality.

The course is presented in a Friday night/Saturday format and continued between the weekends with follow-up weekly support group meetings. Support group meetings give invaluable continuity to the process of becoming a spiritual scientist. They are a required part of the course.
